

Cement Quota Cut For 1949 Hinted

Priority Projects Listed As Affecting Supply

Cement quota allocated to the City of Edmonton in 1949 may be lower than that of this year.

Priority projects listed for the 1949 construction season are factors affecting the supply.

PRIORITIES LISTED

Priority jobs listed for 1949 are the Spray Lake hydro project in Banff national park, and construction of runways at the Calgary airport.

Commissioner D. R. Menzies stated today that on the basis of the 1948 potential cement supply will not be possible to carry out more than 20 percent of the paving, curbing and sidewalk construction contemplated for next year.

SHORT THIS YEAR

City engineer W. H. Haddow said the cement supply this year will prevent completion of one-third of the projects included in the 1948 estimates.

Commissioners are exploring possibilities of obtaining cement supplies, clothing and household furnishings for the medical. Last year supply of cement was banded from Britain, and only a short quantity was available from that source this year.

Concrete overall available but the 70 cents a 100 pounds freight rate from Vancouver to Edmonton brings the cement cost laid down here at $10 compared with $1.10 for the domestic product.

Because committee members knew intimately the individual conditions, "chiselers" were eliminated and persons in need of assistance but too proud to ask for it were sought out.

Funds contributed by Canadians provided food, fuel, medical supplies, clothing and household furnishings for the victims. Although 50 per cent of rehabilitation work is completed, need of continued assistance in food purchases is expected to continue in many cases to 1950.

HOUSING ARRANGED Housing accommodation is being provided by the provincial government.

Gen. Worthington is returning to Vancouver after attending the Royal Canadian Armored Corps conference at Ottawa, where he was appointed commandant of the corps.

The military note: The 18th Armoured Car Regt. (Edmonton Fusiliers) RCAC, will have a range practice on Sunday at Winterton, Pickup truck will be at Connaught Armory at 9:00 hours, and regiment will leave barracks at 9:00 hours. Regular weekly parade will be held at Connaught Armory at 10:45 hours Monday.

OWN COMMITTEES Operating under a citizens' rehabilitation council at Vancouver, local committees in each flooded area were selected from among flood victims themselves.

Psychology used in deciding to form the flood construction "relief" rather than "relief" was explained here today by Mr. Gen. F. F. Worthington, CB, MC, MM, retired General Staff Officer of Western Command, Canadian Army. Many replaced Mexico in his affections where, as a young man he was captured by Indians and later fought in the 1910 revolutions.

Psychology Use Told In B.C. Flood Program

Choices of a single word contributed largely to the success of last spring's voluntary assistance to British Columbia flood victims.

Community Leagues Plan Campaign

Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues will ask citizens for $100,000 in contributions next year to establish community centres.

Plans for the campaign were announced Thursday by Charles Simmonds, re-elected president of the league federation at the organization's annual meeting at the Civic hotel.

Simmonds was named vice-president, Duncan Innes, director of civics committee, H. Hager, director of education committee, W. Hawelak, director of publicity committee.

Mr. Simmonds termed establishment of community centres a "good investment" and said he believed Edmonton citizens would over-subscribe the $100,000 campaign.

Sea Cadets

The Sea Cadets of RCSCW Warrior will parade Sunday Oct. 17 at the CPR station, 10:00 a.m. and Jasper avenue, at 12:30 p.m. Rig of the day to be blue caps and jerseys.

Universal Training At Age of 18 Urged

Compulsory military training for all Canadians for at least a year after they reach age of 18 was advocated by Harper Prowse, Alberta Liberal leader, in an address to Edmonton's United Service Institute Friday.

Events since the cessation of hostilities in World War II had shattered hopes the world would have a long period of peace, Mr. Prowse pointed out.

Two new wars, Canada had found efforts to supply manpower to the armed forces by voluntary recruitment had failed and the value of men being forced to conscript per year.

YEARS RESERVE The Alberta Liberal leader thought the country could be assured of adequate armed forces only if all Canadian youths were given a year of intensive training followed by at least four years service in the reserve army.

He admitted the cost would be high, suggesting $500,000 annually would be required to pay the young men registered, their instructors and to maintain the present active army.

To avert the argument the cost would be prohibitive Mr. Prowse said.

NO EASY WAY "The mere will to peace will not bring peace, history has proved that. The mere blinding of our eyes to obvious dangers does not bring safety. There is in fact no easy way, an inevitable road to world security and peace."

Preparedness, he added, "is the only bulwark behind which we can hope to find shelter, if the last several years have been a lesson in the value of life, if we would be alive to see the day when the threat of war is banished from this earth, we should be prepared to pay the price now."

Mr. Col. J. Dodd, president of the Edmonton United Services Institute, presided and Brig. E. B. Wilson introduced Mr. Prowse to the 150 members of the institute in attendance.

Bull in Name Contest Enters Name Stretch

Give Me a Name!

Folks are really pouring in the names for as the bull's contest heads down the stretch. Guess with Christmas only a few short weeks away, everyone is cashing in on this easy money. I suggest you turn the pages of your favorite newspaper to the classified section and read the rules and regulations then sit down and figure out a suitable name for an advertising genius like myself.

The bull is giving away $200 in cash prizes to Bulletin readers for simply submitting a name for nameless man. If you want to cash in on this easy money, I suggest you turn the pages of your favorite newspaper to the classified section and read the rules and regulations then sit down and figure out a suitable name for an advertising genius like myself.

Opened a letter from the huge pile already submitted. It was picked at random and the reader was Robert Stokoe of 1116 5th Ave. This gentleman suggested to the bull that I should be called "Frank Ad Victor" which I am not the one who picks my name.

That horse has been tossed into the laps of several fellow workers who are really going to have quite a session selecting my name from the thousands of suggestions already submitted, and those expected to arrive before the contest closes next Monday night 20:00 G. E. R. Shaw, of the McLean Club, makes the suggestion that "Colin C. Mee" is an appropriate name for the bull. The name of Herbert, Sask. says I should be called "E-fficiency".

Nice going like the suggestions just get better all the time, but don't stop at that. You know, folks, the more the merrier and I'm looking forward to seeing a name for the bull by November 20 so won't you send in a suggestion.

Jamaica Rum Magnate Buys His Own Drinks

President of the world's largest rum company is rationing his drinks to one a day and buying his own product at $5 a bottle.

He is R. J. Wackerling, president of the R. J. Wackerling Ltd., of Kingston, Jamaica, who declares R. J. Wackerling, Kingston, Jamaica, president of the world's largest rum company.

Wackerling during the week-end, to drive to the West coast before returning by way of the United States to New York and Jamaica.

Wackerling has requested manufacturers to buy his rum with dollar coupons, he said, and his visit to Canada and United States is in an effort to increase Jamaica rum sales here.

AUSTERITY TRIP For Wackerling and his Winnipeg-born wife, Mrs. Wackerling, the trip has been entirely on the austerity basis from the time they reached Canada after visiting in England, France and Switzerland.

That's because dollar-short Jamaica limit the amount of Canadian currency his clients can draw for travel purposes here.

Driving across Canada, Wackerling has stayed at motor courts wherever possible, done their own cooking and spent frugally.

BRINGS NO SUPPLIES They're harassed by Canadian federal and provincial regulations, too.

High Canadian tariffs prohibited them from bringing supplies of rum from the giant plant Mr. Wackerling has in Jamaica.

Alberta liquor laws obligate him to obtain a provincial at the government vendors store, and pay current $5 a bottle prices for it. Under the circumstances, he limits himself to a single pre-mixed cocktail.

"Our laws also prohibit us from advertising our products directly except in British Columbia and Quebec," he pointed out. "We hope that some day this regulation may be changed."

Best Canadian customers for his rum are in British Columbia, the president said. "Why? We do not know, except perhaps because Alberta has been seen for ourselves, is the most prosperous of the mid-west."

The rum company official who has been in Alberta for several years said.

TODAY'S MESSAGE

Courtesy

St. Augustine once described pity as courtesy with God. No one, of course, can be courteous with God if he lacks courtesy toward his neighbor. Thus if I follow him that if we wish to cultivate pity, we must have respect for others, for their worth, their views and even for their prejudices. This applies to whole nations and races as well as to individuals.

Courtesy demands a refinement of soul. Such refinement comes only from a constant awareness of one's obligations even to the least of human creatures. The Saviour Himself gave many perfect examples of this spirit. Many of His contemporaries may have doubted His divinity, but they were always moved by the sublime courtesy He showed even to the poorest outcasts who knelt in greeting as He passed by.

It was to the poor and often apparently least worthy that Christ displayed the greatest courtesy. It is tragic, therefore, that many who profess to follow Him want to exercise courtesy as if it was to be measured by the station or rank of its recipients. Far different have been the examples of saintly Christians who are remembered chiefly for their extraordinary courtesy and grace toward those whom others regarded as the dregs of humanity.

Courtesy is charity in its widest expression. Not all men need charity in the sense of being aided in a material way; every man needs the courtesy that recognizes his dignity and accord with him respect to which every creature is entitled. Where courtesy does not prevail there is likely to be discord, resentment, even hate. Courtesy must be exercised not only in the home, but in the office, the factory, in every place where men come in contact. Courtesy is an attitude of mind which helps to create good neighborliness in our own immediate circle and in the world at large. Courtesy is kindness in attitude; sympathy and insight; consideration of others' problems and needs. Most sins against courtesy are sins of speech—of innuendo, slander, misrepresentation. Frequently the most abused against are not individuals we know, but races and groups of whom we know little or nothing. Discourtesy can be an international baffle. It is worth remembering that when we speak of international tensions and misunderstandings we are really deploring the absence of courtesy in its universal, all-embracing aspect.

House of Future To Be Colorful

California Expert Sees Evenhue Cooking

Color will be the servant in the house of tomorrow. That's the wise word of Albert King, chairman of the California Color Society.

From the color spectrum you will see ultraviolet and infrared rays for everything from killing flies to cheering up your mother-in-law. And you will build in color as you now build walls.

Fantastic and impractical? "Not at all," says King, "already these things have been done in laboratories. Give the technicians time and the housewife will depend on infrared rays to save her from the cold, electricity, predicts King.

COOKING AT TABLE

The housewife will be able to cook meals on her plastic dinner table.

There will be grooved patterns at each place," he says, "and if you are having steak, the grooves will help of beef at each place and turn on the infrared. Press the steak gets hot and cooks and the table stays cool. You eat the steak to sit there."

With this new system there's no dishes to wash. To clean up, the table is wiped with a damp cloth, then given a dosing of ultraviolet rays to sterilize the surface for next meal.

These infrared rays can also be used to heat the house, doing away with heaters and furnaces. The house may be cool in winter, but standards, but you will be warm even in light clothing, he claims.

TO KILL FLIES

Ultraviolet rays may be arranged around the house in loops that will kill out flies, moths, and other insects. And these rays will protect color effects once undreamed of, is the prediction.

For instance, he says, there are now fluorescent dyes which when exposed to ultraviolet rays will produce a color lighter than the dye. This is like water that is water when wet, he says.

The sun's ultraviolet rays can also be stored in opaque, laminated sheets, says King. When the sun comes night, the windows will phosphoresce or glow. Phosphorescent minerals, incorporated in the walls will do the same thing. It may be even possible to get a sun tan when you sleep, he claims.

Psychology, he says, has opened up a whole new field for color. Our moods are strongly influenced by certain colors, making us cheerful or depressed as the case may be. Ultraviolet rays can play a part here too.

TO COSE GROUCHES

If the bore or anyone else is in as off as you, the bore or someone else will fly away by using infrared, says King.

Ultraviolet rays, he continues, can be used to switch colors in walls, upholstery and draperies. Just a twist of a dial will be able to shift from red to blue, from red to green, make a green plant red or even change the color of the flowers in your room.

If your husband or wife is grouchy, or if you are a housewife feel let down after your day's work, ultraviolet rays could produce a soothing green, for instance. It would not wonder for the family morale at such times.

"Why we've just begun to tap the possibilities in the color spectrum. It will take time yet to cut costs down to a household budget, but when that happens, this present world will look very dull."

Abbott Sentenced To 15-Year Term

BRNO, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 16.—(AP)—Rev. Joseph Hattl, 30, Abbot of the Monastery of the Meritoli brothers here, yesterday was sentenced to 15-year imprisonment. He was convicted on charges of circulating anti-state pamphlets, organizing a spy network, and helping persons escape the country by secret routes.

Right Depth of Plant Vital With Fall Bulbs

Fall bulbs should never be planted in poorly drained locations. If your garden is low, lacking a place where water never stands, but always quickly runs or drains away, then such a place must be created by elevating a bed six inches or more above the surface. Remember that newly turned soil settles; so heap it above the bulbs, six inches or two, to avoid leaving a depression when it packs down. The depths of planting given in the chart may be considered minimums; deeper planting may often be advisable. One of the chief hazards for all bulbs is frost heaving, due to alternate freezing and thawing of the soil, which may lift shallow rooted plants out of the soil.

Bulbs planted so late they cannot make roots in the fall are likely to suffer from it, and large bulbs not set deep enough will often be injured. A much placed over the bulbs after the ground has frozen will keep the frost in, and reduce frost heaving.

When it is intended to allow bulbs to remain where you plant them several years rather than dig them up after they have blossomed and their leaves have turned yellow each summer, they should be planted in a much placed over the bulbs after the ground has frozen will keep the frost in, and reduce frost heaving.

Deep planting may cause flowering to be somewhat later, so all bulbs which it is desired shall blossom at the same time should be planted the same depth.

The lines which need deep planting (17 to 18 inches) are those that make roots on their stems above the bulb. The madonna lily, which does not do this, needs shallow planting, 3 to 4 inches down.

First Danish Butter To Be Landed Today

OTTAWA, Oct. 16.—(CP)—The first shipment of Danish butter being imported to bolster domestic stocks will be landed at Montreal today, the trade department said. It will total 3,000,000 pounds.

Trade minister Howe said the government is paying an average price of 701 cents a pound, FOB. Total shipments, coming from Denmark, Australia and New Zealand, will be 13,000,000 pounds.

Mr. Howe said the government is making "no profit whatever" on the transaction and actually is absorbing a "small loss" to enable the butter to be sold at Canadian retail prices. The ceilings, which vary across the country, range from around 17 to 24 cents a pound.

The Canadian commercial corporation, in cooperation with the price board, has completed arrangements for distribution of the butter. Allocations have been made in sufficient quantities to last until the end of December and the remainder will be distributed in the new year.

Of the total, Canada is buying 11,000,000 pounds from Denmark and 2,000,000 pounds from Australia and New Zealand. The butter will have landed in Canada by the end of January.

Elissa Landi's Condition Worse KINGSTON, N.Y., Oct. 16.—(AP)—Elissa Landi, 43-year-old screen actress and novelist who entered a hospital here last Saturday, was reported last night to be in "much poorer" condition. The actress was stricken with an ailment described as "chronic."

Russ Meat, Dairy Minister Ousted

Apparent Failure to Meet Production Quota Reason

By Eddy Gilmore

MOSCOW, Oct. 16.—(AP)—Russia has fired its minister of the meat and dairy industry, apparently because he failed to fill his production quota.

Tran, the official Soviet news agency, said yesterday the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet has appointed Nikolai Ivanovich Smirnov to replace V. V. Vorobiev in the post. The announcement came after the central statistical administration reported that Vorobiev fell nine per cent below his quota.

The statistical administration said that Russia's industrial production as a whole now is 26 per cent higher than in 1940, peak year of Soviet accomplishment, and that the 1948 grain crop has reached the 1940 level.

"During the nine months of 1948 the total production of Soviet industry exceeded the average level of pre-war 1940 by 14 per cent and in September by 26 per cent," the industrial report said.

Foreign Minister Molotov announced last fall that Soviet industry had attained the 1940 level. The statistical bureau said that two ministries—the milk and meat industry and the fish industry for eastern regions failed to meet their 1948 quotas. No announcement was made of any change in the fish ministry.

In the over-all picture, the statistical bureau said the government's goals for the first nine months were exceeded by six per cent and the goals for the third quarter by seven per cent.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—Glady's O'Brien is an attractive, graying brunette with flashing eyes. Her daughter is a precocious million-dollar package named Margaret, not yet a dozen years old.

"The biggest problem for a screen mother," Mrs. O'Brien remarked, "is to keep the child from being spoiled. People think, 'poor little girl, she works so hard,' and they tend to spoil her."

"However, the studio work itself is discipline and that helps. Like all children, Margaret may argue, but she has never said 'I won't do it' to me yet."

MOUNTAIN OF MAIL
A mountain of fan mail comes to Mrs. O'Brien as well as the talented but most frequent question: Does Margaret get to play with other girls? What about her school? Answers:

"She plays with her stand-in on the set, and has other children in her home. However, she sometimes becomes impatient with playing because she'd like to be rehearsing a movie scene with her dolls."

Margaret didn't start school until she was eight, because her mother thought she should do one thing at a time. She made the work up rapidly and now is in the seventh grade.

Another frequent question is "how can I get my child into the movies?" Ah, that is the $64 question.

"A movie mother doesn't get any time to herself or have much of

Louis Armstrong Coming to City

Sponsor Not Yet Found For Trumpeter, However

By Dick Sherbank

Louis Armstrong and his band will be coming to Edmonton this winter.

The red-hot trumpeter, who is a perennial favorite with North American swing fans, is expected to play here on Jan. 23, an one stop on a tour of Western Canada.

He'll also be playing in Winnipeg, Regina, Saskatoon, and Calgary.

Armstrong, or "Satchmo" as he is popularly known, is the best of his wide, heavy-lipped, beak-mouth, now leads a seven-piece swing band.

He has been picked as an All-Time Jazz Band member by a panel of 100 jazz musicians.

The band includes a double bass, a piano, a guitar, a saxophone, a trumpet, and a trombone.

Armstrong, who began his career in the early days of jazz in New Orleans, recently returned with his band from Paris, where he and his boys took first prize in a contest.

He is one of the world's best-known musicians.

His wintering Western Canadian tour is being booked by Canadian Music Associates Ltd., of Toronto.

The manager of the agency is Joseph Shor, who lives in Toronto.

Shor, who is a lawyer, is also a promoter.

He is the manager of the Armstrong band, and he has been successful in securing appearances here.

He is also the manager of the band of Duke Ellington.

He is also the manager of the band of Count Basie.

Lower Freight Rates For West

SALES POSSIBILITY

MONTREAL, Oct. 16.—(CP)—Freight rates in the east may be increased in the west reduced, Fred T. Parker, manager of the Traffic and Customs Department of the Canadian National Railway, said today.

Mr. Parker made it clear to the group that he was not speaking for any knowledge of the railway freight rate investigating board.

He said freight rates will be made more equal so as to eliminate the difference between the east and the west.

Bobby Kirk Should Live So Long

Seven Keys To Baldpate is a pretty good 'whodunit' in its own right.

But it has nothing on the mystery attending the current edition of the Saskatoon Quakers, as Bobby Kirk plans to win more than 10, or at most, a dozen games.

Possibly Kirk has been equipped with a set of special mirrors. Or it may be that he will be expected to hold his own by the exercise of a super-super form of sleight of hand. However even in Chicago and Montreal either of these would be looked upon as pretty much hit and miss. And goodness knows there's precious little being done in these two alleged big-league centres to drag the basebasing White Sox and Cubs or the Canadians of the puck set out of the ruck of the second division.

The members of the Flver Fan club who make the journey to the local snit Monday for their opening look at the Quakers will scarcely recognize them as even the hapless (in Edmonton anyway) crew of 12 months ago.

For if anything the Hub City aggregation figures to be a still softer touch for what are now the defending Allan Cup kings.

The Smell Of Money

Gone to Owen Sound is Mike Shagaga, the little pivot who didn't care a quarter about back-checking but who could—and did—put the puck in the net. And also departed for greener fields are Keith Burgess, Quakers' top rookie of last season, Bill Snider and Edmonton-nurtured Johnny Dutek.

Snider presumably got a better deal in Spokane. The story on Dutek is that he is established among the times with the pen in his hurry to get his name to a Valley-field playing form once he lapped the figures thereon. Burgess has gone to the Detroit chair.

Veteran Syd Kinn, who had one of his best seasons, has bought himself a rocking chair and a copy of that literary classic "How to Grow Old Disgracefully."

In other words the heart has been cut out of the Quakers. If, that is, a team which took some of the wallpangs the hot-cold Kirkmen did in the 1947-48 chase, can be considered to have had much of a ticker.

To replace Shagaga, Snider and the rest of the departed those saddled with the promotion of the Quakers have come up with a passed of what, in, for the most part, green help.

And green help, desirable as it is in the overall picture, doesn't cut much ice in the strong WCHL when there's too much of it concentrated on the same team.

Woe Is Ken McAuley

In fact there may be nights in the next five months when Ken McAuley, your friend and mine, will wonder if he isn't back tending the cage for New York Rangers as he knew them in a couple of the war years.

Here's one watchdog who is scheduled to shed plenty of rubber before the warm winds come again in the spring to stay. Might even be that if there's a payoff to the experience gained playing behind the inept Hanger team of those seasons this will be it. For certainly McAuley, tremendously popular in Saskatoon, will have his chances to hold the Quakers together in spectacular fashion.

Of course Kirk might make something of the material placed at his disposal. If he does—if for instance he should pull the Quakers up by their boot tops and corral a playoff berth at the expense of either Lethbridge or Calgary (Flyers and Regina will run 1-2, take your choice)—then the onetime Northwestern league forward will be No. 1 candidate for the coach-of-the-year award.

Last season the Quakers went on a prolonged win streak on home ice. Once well into it coach Kirk announced that he would not change his suit so long as his gang retained their winning form.

Let's hope—for the good of the league—that he gets a chance to embark on the same sartorial program somewhere along the way in the 1948-49 season.

I love you, too.

WHILE YOU PLAY
A regular inspection of your windshield and windows takes only a few minutes—and it could mean the difference between life and death. Cracked or discoloured windows and windshields impair visibility. You can be on the safe side by replacing defective glass with Safety Glass by Duplate. This strong tough laminated glass provides good vision, and in case of accidents it positively eliminates shattering glass splinters.

If replacements are necessary in your car, they can be done while you wait.

"We're Not Licked" Bombers' Battle Cry

Art Chipman 'Holler Guy'
Of Faltering Grid Champs

WINNIPEG, Oct. 16.—(CP)—President Art Chipman of Winnipeg Blue Bombers moved to rally the flagging western Canada football champions Friday night with the battle cry: "We're not licked yet."

Chipman, declaring this his last season as president of Bombers, said he found it difficult to understand why the Bombers should be in such hot water with the fans at home simply because of one bad season.

"True, we're not doing as well this season as we've done in the past. We've been champions for so long I guess. Now they seem to figure that the team's no good simply because things have turned against us. Well I'd like to say that I'm proud of our boys and they're not licked yet."

Chipman said the league-leading Calgary Stampeders, victory in all nine league games so far this year, would probably be just another football team without their awesome forward pass duo—punter Kevin Spahn and receiver Woody Stroe.

"They're the two that make the difference. We sent out coach Jack West before the season got underway with instructions to get a passer and receiver pair experienced. Well, we didn't come up with such a combination, and Calgary did. That's the difference."

Despite his respect for the abilities of the two Calgary stars, Chipman added a belief that injuries had played a big part in holding back both the Bombers and the third-place Saskatchewan Roughriders.

"The Stampeders have been fortunate. They haven't had anywhere near the number of injuries to contend with."

Chipman feels the Stamps gained a great psychological edge over the Bombers early in the season when they topped the Winnipeg club 10-0 on a touchdown pass by Spahn to Stroe on the last play of the game. At the time the Bombers had been leading 5-4 and seemed to have the game in the bag.

"APPLE SAUCE"—Chipman said, "It was 'apple sauce' to hold that Bombers' pre-empt 'night' could be ascribed to the fact they had allowed some grown talent to slip away to other fields."

"We've been castigated because Norm Hill and Cliff Killever are playing for Calgary. So far as I know Hill is a Calgary boy who had been going to attend here, but was moved by his firm to Calgary."

At any rate, with two games to play the Riders have three and a two-point edge over Saskatchewan. Chipman still is confident that Bombers make the playoffs against the Stamps. "We're not out of things yet."

HARRIS TO MANAGE DETROIT TIGERS?

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—(UPI)—The New York Daily News stated Friday night that Buckey Harris will manage the Detroit Tigers in 1949. Harris was recently displaced as bossman of the New York Yankees.

According to the News, Walter "Spike" Briggs, Jr., already has convinced his father, owner of the club, that a change in field leadership is necessary. Young Briggs now is in Europe. But he is expected back aboard the "Queen Elizabeth" next Thursday. And the News said an announcement is expected then.

Meanwhile in Detroit, general manager Billy Evans of the Tigers, has emphatically denied the story.

He says, "there's not a word of truth to the report."

Einicki Climaxes 1st Pro Golf Year

ST. CATHARINES, Oct. 16.—(CP)—With Bill Einicki of Winnipeg, Friday climaxed his first year as a professional golfer.

He won the annual golf tournament of the Toronto Maple Leaf hockey club with a five-under-par 67 over the St. Catharines Golf and Country Club and the score included a two-stroke penalty for a lost ball.

Einicki finished seven strokes ahead of defending champion Turk Brooks of Hamilton.

Volunteer Army of 10,000 Objective in Red Cross Blood Donor Enrollment Week

HEALTHY BLOOD bank "accounts" depend on regular "deposits." Next week is Blood Donor Enrollment week. "Depositor" Harry Bennett goes through the painless procedure at Edmonton Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic. Technician Frances Casselman takes a drop sample of Harry's blood.

HARRY'S BLOOD passes tests with flying colors. He's been given a label, stating his blood is Type A, which he presents to the Red Cross clerk. She takes down his name, address and other necessary information for the records. Harry is now fully "enlisted" in the peacetime army of blood donors.

MEDICAL MEN find that some refreshment is helpful before the blood is taken from the donor. So Harry sips a "cocktail" that will help replace body liquids he will lose from the donation. As only 12 ounces of blood are now taken at one time; special dieting is no longer required.

ANY DAY is banking day at the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic. Here Harry goes through the all-important step of giving his 12 ounces to the bank. Nurse Margaret Gales is highly skilled and the whole process is painless to the donor although mighty important to the people of Alberta.

THE WHOLE business all over in a few minutes Harry enjoys a cup of hot coffee that will speed up replacement of body fluids. Pearl Zimmer of the Red Cross presides at the urn and pours according to the best accepted pattern of Emily Post. In 10 minutes Harry will be back at work.—Photos by Mand.

New Campaign Set For Blood Donors

There's a new kind of recruiting campaign opening in Edmonton and Northern Alberta next Monday.

The Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service for Northern Alberta will stage a drive to enlist 10,000 blood donors.

Week of October 18 to 25 has been designated Blood Donor Enrollment Week in Northern Alberta. Rex Martin is in charge of the campaign in Edmonton city.

OTHER OFFICIALS
Robert Muir, assistant provincial commissioner of the Alberta Red Cross, is guiding the overall campaign. Dr. Stanley Greenhill is medical director for Alberta and Eric Graham panel organizer for the transfusion service in Northern Alberta.

Steady increase of population in Edmonton and all of Northern Alberta makes an increase in the number of regular blood donors imperative, officials of the Red Cross said.

Mr. Graham said today that Edmonton has about 4,000 regular donors. At least 6,000 more are required to meet the demand.

FIGURES ARE CITED
Some interesting figures on the Edmonton Blood Donor Clinic for the period from July 17, 1947, to Aug. 31, 1948, have been released, here, today.

During the period, 1,047 blood donors were registered, 1,047 blood donors were registered, 1,047 blood donors were registered.

TUESDAY—Gyro, South Side Kiwanis, Y's Men's Club.
THURSDAY—Rotary, Lions, Optimists.
FRIDAY—Kimenen.

Service clubs will turn their attention to the sports world next week, with one group hearing discussions on hockey, another on golf, and a third completing plans for Edmonton's first barrel derby.

Championship golfer, Harry Martell, will address the Kiwanis Club's regular luncheon meeting at the Macdonald hotel Monday.

Dr. W. G. Hardy, president of the International Hockey Association, who recently returned from Europe, will compare Canadian and European hockey styles at the Kiwanis Club meeting Friday at 7 p.m. at the Macdonald hotel.

Cosmopolitan Club will hear reports of committees planning the club's first annual barrel derby scheduled for May, 1949, at a dinner meeting Monday at 6:15 p.m.

Meeting place will have changed from Corona hotel to the Traders. Optimism will honor International president's Milton Morris with a supper and social for members and their wives Thursday evening.

Regular luncheon meeting will be held during the week. Gyro Club schedules a "mystery program" for the regular luncheon meeting Tuesday at the Macdonald hotel.

"Adult Education" will be the topic of Prof. A. B. Twissie, University of Alberta, in a department when he addresses the Y's men's Club at the YMCA Tuesday evening.

Rotarians will observe United Nations' day with a discussion of the club's international service. J. M. Malone will be chairman of the day.

There are 66,823 names on the lists whose names for school purposes go to the public school and 1,356 to the separate school board.

Mr. Docherty said all deputy returning officers and poll clerks had been appointed, and everything was in readiness to take the vote.

City Pair Committed On Break-in Charge

Stanley and McCracken Once Again Refused Bail

Two Edmonton men were committed to stand trial in Supreme Court Friday on charges of attempted shopbreaking.

Appearing before Magistrate A. J. Miller, the pair were committed without bail.

The men are Ronald Stanley, 2929 81 street, and Kenneth McCracken, no fixed address, who were taken into custody 1:10 a.m. Friday, Oct. 8, in the vicinity of 11213 Jasper avenue by Corporal Herb Silver and Constable E. C. Haisfield of the RCMP after an alleged attempt to break into the Public Drug store.

One of the men was stooped with his hands up to the store, the other was facing out to the street, according to evidence.

Previously in the hearing, Detective Roy Dick of the city police force testified that he and Detective John Priestman, while enroute in the Public Drug store between 4 and 5 p.m. earlier the same day, had observed Stanley and McCracken come in the store and buy a chocolate bar.

After reviewing evidence Magistrate Miller committed the pair for Supreme Court trial.

NA BAIL ALLOWED
An earlier ruling denying bail requested by defense lawyer, Walter Beaumont, acting for the two accused, was reinstated.

At the close of the alleged shopbreaking, Stanley was already under bail pending the hearing of two charges of possessing narcotics and one of being a habitual criminal to be heard in Supreme Court.

Stanley was the first habitual criminal case to be heard in 1948 following new legislation.

City Pays Tribute To Canada's Navy
Tribute will be paid to Edmontonians, during the week of October 17, to personnel of Canada's Navy.

Today Mayor Harry Ainlay issued a proclamation asking all citizens to "render grateful tribute to our navy, and give a well deserved honor and recognition to the achievements of the men and women who compose its ranks."

In recognition of the day, on Navy Week, Mayor Ainlay asked Edmontonians to display the national flag and take part in appropriate observance of this week.

Court Remains in Dark As to How Man Murdered

Trial of Mike Zashuruk for the slaying of William Pacholek last May has been unusual in one respect.

Although the trial lasted four full days up to Friday night, no one then shed light on the question of how Pacholek came to his death.

Thirty crown witnesses had gone to the witness stand up to add to the evidence of the trial, including a 1934 Plymouth coupe, a shotgun and 22 rifle had been tendered.

BODY IDENTIFIED
But as yet not a single witness has so much as hinted at how Pacholek died.

A body identified as that of Pacholek was found by police near 10 miles from the farm of the deceased.

There has been evidence of a slithering happening at a glow stick standing in a field on the Pacholek farm. Witnesses described blood stains, hair, and flesh on the glow.

WAIT MEDICAL EVIDENCE
It is likely that medical testimony as to cause of Pacholek's death will be called before the Crown completes its case.

In the meantime, veteran lawyers are commenting on the unusual sequence of trial testimony. Trial is continuing through Saturday and may not be concluded before Monday night.

Up to Friday 20 of 42 Crown witnesses had testified.

City Jewry Start Feast
Commencing Sunday, Oct. 17, Edmonton Jewry will observe the Feast of the Tabernacle. It will last from sunset, Oct. 17 to sunset, Oct. 26.

A special tabernacle has been constructed and will be decorated with fruit symbolizing the ancient harvest thanksgiving feast.

The tabernacle is in commemoration of the temporary dwelling of the ancient Jews during their desert journey to the Holy Land.

Work on the tabernacle was done by pupils of the Beth Shalom religious school.

Conducting the opening service of the feast at 8 p.m., Oct. 17, at the Talmud Torah hall will be Rabbi H. Leon Turkel.

His topic will be "The Language of the Symbol."

Rust can be removed from kettles with kerosene and steel wool.

BLOOD DONOR ENROLMENT

WEEK OCTOBER 18 to 23

WILL YOU BE A BLOOD DONOR? ENROLL NOW!

No greater gift can one human being give another than life itself. Today, thanks to modern advancement in medical science, Blood is life.

Every year—on the operating table, after accidents, in child-birth, in serious illness, lives can be saved which would otherwise slip away.

The Canadian Red Cross is operating provincial-wide Blood Transfusion Service to provide whole blood and plasma FREE . . . not even a hospital service charge to patients who need transfusions.

The small gift of blood from YOU is the gift of life itself to someone whose life is in danger.

Medical men report, of all Canadian women who die in child-birth every fourth mother dies of hemorrhage. Three-quarters of these mothers can be saved . . . with but a small gift of blood from YOU.

Children are Canada's most precious possession. Yet every year scores of youngsters struck down by accident or illness die for want of blood.

This is your opportunity to save the life of a mother . . . a child . . . a friend . . . or even a relative.

The Canadian Red Cross Blood Donor Service means life to someone whose life hangs in the balance . . . YOU can make sure the balance swings to the right with YOUR GIFT OF BLOOD.

The inconvenience to you is slight. The procedure of giving your blood is simple, painless and harmless. Won't you give your gift of blood today?

In Edmonton there are only 4,000 registered donors. To meet the demand for the population the size of this city another 8,000 donors are urgently needed.

During Blood Donor Week you are asked to give your blood that others may live. Contact the Edmonton Red Cross donor enrolment committee or fill in the blood donor coupon on this page.

Volunteer Blood Donor Enrolment Campaign

Volunteer canvassers will call on you next week to enrol blood donors. Be ready for the canvasser! You may do this by having the names written down of the members of your household willing to donate blood to the Canadian Red Cross. If unable to be at home when the Canvasser calls, please Phone 29676.

1. What am I asked to give? It is within your power to save life, for in your body is the one commodity that cannot be manufactured, an element that has saved more lives than any drug . . . BLOOD.
2. Why am I asked to give? The Canadian Red Cross Society is pledged to supply, free of charge, all blood and plasma used in 114 Alberta hospitals. They collect, test and distribute all the donations of blood. The success of this free transfusion service depends entirely on volunteer blood donors.
3. How much am I asked to give? Less than 13 ounces. You have approximately 200 ounces of blood in your body.
4. Who benefits by my gift? Every man, woman and child in Alberta receives free blood transfusions when needed.
5. Does anyone have to pay for my gift? No! Your gift and the transfusion equipment are supplied without charge.
6. Who may donate? If you are between 18-65 years of age and in average health you may be a blood donor.
7. Will I be tested to determine that I am physically fit to give blood? Yes! Every donor is tested before donating.
8. Is the donating of blood painless? Yes! There is no discomfort experienced in giving blood.
9. Are there any diet restrictions? No.
10. How was blood obtained before the Red Cross organized this service? By paying for each transfusion or frantically appealing to relatives, friends or the public after the need arose, and often too late.
11. How many donations of blood are needed? 800 donations a week are needed in Alberta. Of this amount 250 bottles of blood are used in Edmonton city hospitals every week.

Austerity Sting Causes Scrimping Saving of Pennies

Pinch those pennies!
Stretch that budget!
Be content with necessities . . . because Mrs. Average Income can't afford luxuries these days. But wouldn't it be fun to go on a shopping spree.

A real spree . . . with no budget blues humming in your ear.

What would you buy if you suddenly discovered a loophole in things that would allow you a whopping big present.

Would you rush right down and buy a gorgeous mink coat, or a beaver as in the picture? Or would you be wise and spend your money on that new furniture you've been seeing in your mind's eye for simply ages and ages?

Would you toss your tired wardrobe to the four winds and do a lot of replenishing?

Just what would you do?

MEAN OL' BUDGET FALLS BY WAYSIDE FOR FUTURE PLANS

STARRY-EYED view of things to come prompts pretty young matron, Mrs. Donald Fraser, to choose furnishings for "tomorrow's dream house." Most women's shopping time these days is divided between burrowing for bargains in every-day necessities and useful window shopping. Mrs. Fraser will know exactly what she wants when the cost of living is lowered sufficiently to make allowance for luxuries such as "going all-out" on a re-furnishing spree.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, Saturday, Oct. 16, 1948 15

BUY ME ONE OF THESE, MUMMY

LUXURY MODEL such as this beautiful, shimmering beaver coat is something little girls dream of — and big girls too. Miss Shirley Thompson revels in the swirl of glamorous fur as she makes plans for the days "when her ship comes in." Miss Thompson expects to leave Monday for New York for a modeling career. With austerity grasping for an all-time high, there aren't so very many beaver coats in so very many clothes closets.

ELEGANT FOOTWEAR FINERY TOPS DREAM SHOPPING LIST

TRUE TO DICTATES of theme Fortune the well-dressed young women pays particular attention to accessories. Gone are the days when two or three pair of shoes comprised a more than adequate footwear wardrobe. But there is just one drawback. Most budgets just won't stretch around a dozen pair of shoes . . . a pair for each costume. Miss Rosalie McIlaffie had a wonderful time picking out half a dozen pair . . . just to see what it feels like again to buy that many shoes at a time.

Jewelry Box Holds Feminine Secrets Of Costume Success

You never think of keeping a wardrobe in a leather box. Yet there's a box on most feminine dressing tables that holds success secrets of an entire wardrobe.

It's a jewelry wardrobe.

It's just as important to a woman's appearance as the clothes hanging in her closet.

Too much jewelry, of course, is in extremely bad taste, spoils the effect of any costume and detracts from the 'picture of perfection' look desired by women.

Particularly in the daytime, fashion advisers say . . . Keep the jewelry wardrobe simple!

When it comes to picking ideal baubles for women, pearls, real and synthetic top the list.

One, two or three strands of pearls, large or small, depending on your own choice and the shape of your neck contribute as much to a costume as you could want . . . in most cases.

Chokers can be worn by women with slim necks, but generally, most women look more attractive with strands that fit a dress neckline.

It takes a woman with a flair for fashion to wear some of the more startling designs now popular . . . and it also takes good judgement to know what jewelry you can combine with what.

Rhinestones with pearls as well as gold with pearls don't jar the sensitive 'fashion eye'. But what destroys the charm and 'chic' of a costume more than anything is a wild combination of colored stones, pearls and gold . . . with no effort at color blending or style matching.

Men envy the variety in women's clothes and the tricks a woman can use to make an inexpensive outfit look twice its price.

Men have only neckties.

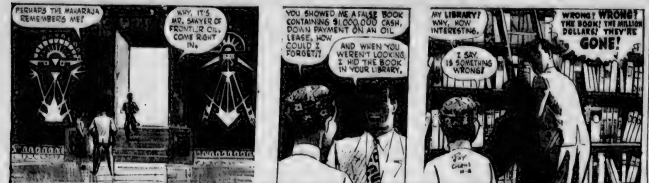

At-Home Elegance in Stately Velvet

WISHFUL THINKING carried Donna Stevenson right into a lingerie shop and right into this beautiful crushed grape velvet gown. Oh for the days when there was room left on the right side of the ledger for a purchase such as this. There's something about beautiful rich materials, wide smoothing skirts that contribute to the sweetness and light of a feminine disposition.

Red Alienation Of 'Neutrals' Seen by West

PARIS, Oct. 16.—(AP)—Western-power officials said today Soviet delegate Andrei Vishinsky had alienated the Security Council "neutrals" by challenging their motives in attempting to mediate the Berlin problem.

A French delegate said Vishinsky had pulled a "trick." Other western spokesmen said he had pushed the "neutrals," which include Canada, over to their side by charging a trap was being laid for Russia.

Vishinsky refused to answer questions on the Berlin blockade and the four-power Moscow negotiations, repeating the Russian argument that the Security Council had no business discussing Berlin.

The questions were put to all four parties to the Berlin dispute by the Argentine foreign minister, Juan B. Peron, acting chairman of the Security Council during the Berlin debate. Britain, the United States and France promised that they would meet next week to discuss the "neutrals' meaningless decision to meet again today in try to work out a possible solution to the impasse.

MacKinnon Denies Immigrants Disloyal

OTTAWA, Oct. 16.—(CP)—An atmosphere of uncertainty today beclouded the story of four Frenchmen who have been granted special cabinet permission to live in Canada, despite charges that they collaborated with the Nazi-dominated government of wartime Vichy France.

In the 36 hours that have elapsed since a well-informed government source disclosed that the four were granted asylum by order-in-council, these developments emerged:

1. Resources Minister MacKinnon, who approved the application of the four men for Canadian residence, in an interview branded the collaboration charge as false with the statement that he was "certain that there was nothing in it."

2. In his judgment, after inquiry, they were "fit and proper" persons to live in Canada.

3. At Montreal, immigration authorities said the police records of the four were from France. The records were said to contain definite charges against them, backed up by sworn statements given by the French police by members of the wartime regime. The immigration officials added that the men had admitted they entered Canada on false passports.

4. A Quebec, a staff member of Laval University said Dr. Georges Laval, one of the four, is lecturing there on medicine. Though not a member of the faculty, the university authorities are believed to be familiar with Dr. Laval's background.

Martin Sees Win For Sask. Liberals

REGINA, Oct. 16.—(CP)—Federal Health Minister Paul Martin said tonight predicted an "overwhelming victory" for the Liberal party in the next Saskatchewan election.

In an address to a banquet of the Regina Liberal Association Mr. Martin said, "everywhere I have been in this province there is evidence of a strong revival of Liberalism and the true Liberal spirit. I am sure that under Walter Tucker's leadership the success that the Liberal party had in the last provincial election will be followed, sooner than you think by an overwhelming victory."

Liberal Party Veteran Dies

OLDS, Oct. 16.—(CP)—Thomas McKenney, only man to have attended all three Liberal national conventions, died suddenly yesterday. He was 81 years old.

Mr. McKenney held a place of honor at the recent Liberal national convention which elected Louis St. Laurent as new party leader. He attended the first Liberal convention in 1880 and also the second convention in 1918.

Born in 1867, Mr. McKenney was a few months older than Canada herself. He went to his first political meeting at the age of 10 and was a Liberal during his lifetime.

Native of Lanark county, Ont., Mr. McKenney moved to the Red Deer district just before the turn of the century as a homesteader. Later he operated a hardware and settled here 10 years ago. He is unmarried.

In 1918, representing Red Deer, he helped vote Prime Minister Mackenzie King into the party leadership as successor to Sir Wilfrid Laurier after election to the House of Commons.

He died at his home in Red Deer. He is survived by a son, George P. Graham, from whom he did not disown his candidacy. He was supported at the Liberal convention last August.

War Band Claimed Behind Red Ousters

LONDON, Oct. 16.—(AP)—A British Communist minister, secretary of the powerful Miners' Union, has accused the government of trying to remove all Communists from key union posts in preparation for a general election.

Horner demanded a showdown with Will Llewellyn, anti-Communist, in the House of Commons. He said the government was "trying to remove all Communists from key union posts in preparation for a general election."

He said the government was "trying to remove all Communists from key union posts in preparation for a general election."

OTTAWA, Oct. 16.—(CP)—Decks were being cleared this week at 141 Laurier Avenue West for George Brown's first call to Ottawa as the new Progressive Conservative leader.

First move in the new regime is the dropping of the name "Bracken House" by which party headquarters here at 141 Laurier Avenue West has been known.

This time, headquarters will have no proper name, but simply be known as 141 Laurier west.

Former party leader, Lester B. Bracken, while cutting ties with what used to be "Bracken House," is leaving the key to the 30 in the House of Commons which he will carry over to his new headquarters.

BRACKEN ON FARM

Mr. Bracken as a preliminary to moving out has vacated his two-bedroom apartment and now is living full-time on his Manitowish farm, some 20 miles from Ottawa.

He is now working on the farm, some 20 miles from Ottawa. He is now working on the farm, some 20 miles from Ottawa.

HELD RESPONSIBLE

The three appeared yesterday in court charged with the slaying of two youths. They were held criminally responsible for the shooting of constables Paul and Paul Enrie Duran.

YES, HE COULD

SINCE the weasel had cleared out of the neighborhood of the Teenie Weenie village, it was safe again for the little folk to wander about. The Lady of Fashion decided to take two of the Teenie Weenie babies and go for a picnic beside the creek. Ginky, of course, was one animal the little people always had to watch, but the mouse had seldom bothered the Lady of Fashion, for she was always polite and kind to him.

"Ginky makes trouble for you men just because you expect him to do it," the Lady of Fashion told the Teenie Weenie men. "If you were kind to him and would trust him he would behave himself."

The little lady packed a hazelnut shell basket with chopped frog ham and watercress sandwiches and cookies. She took along a braken, which is a length of hollow reed that has been plugged at both ends. She filled the braken with cold sassafras tea, set Zero, the tiniest Teenie Weenie baby, in his peanut shell go-cart, and with Nipper, Zero's brother, set off for the creek.

They met Ginky along the trail to the creek. The mouse stopped when he saw them coming and leaned against a mushroom to wait until they drew near. The Lady of Fashion stopped and smiled sweetly at the mouse, while Nipper stared and Zero nearly fell out of the peanut shell in his efforts to see the mouse.

"Good morning, Ginky," said the Lady of Fashion, pleasantly. "We're going down to the creek for a picnic lunch."

The TEENIE WEEENIES

"Watcha got to eat?" asked Ginky, staring greedily at the basket that sat in the front of the baby carriage.

"Oh, a lot of good things," smiled the Lady of Fashion. "If you should happen to be around about lunchtime I'll give you some cookies."

The Teenie Weenies passed on, and when they came to the creek the Lady of Fashion set the basket of food in a shady place under a burdock leaf to keep cool. The children played in the sand until lunchtime. Then the Lady of Fashion spread out the food on a clean leaf and they began eating.

Ginky, who had hung around all morning, now came up and the Lady of Fashion gave him several cookies. "Ginky," she said, "you have not molested our food or done one thing that wasn't gentlemanly, and I want you to know that I appreciate it."

"Well, you'd better appreciate it. I could have made an awful lot of trouble for you," said Ginky, as he walked away.

There is so much good in the worst of us, and so much bad in the best of us, that it hardly becomes any of us to talk about the rest of us. HARRY

CHIEF O' STAFF, EH? TOP BRASS IN DIS HOSPITAL! FINE! TH' BEST IS NONE TOO GOOD FER DAT KID! YOU AN' YER PAL STAY RIGHT WIT' HER AND KEEP DITCHIN'—SEE?

BUT YOU CAN'T COVINE US HERE BY FORCE!

YEAH? WANT TO BET? I'M HAVIN' NO INTERIES LEAVIN' TH' BUSINESS BY DEACTION! ON ANNE! AND IF YOU TWO BIRDS DON'T PULL HER TROUGH—WELL, YOU WON'T GET OVER WHATELL HAPPEN TO YOU—SEE?

HELLO, STARR—WHAT D'YOU WANT? KISS AWAY FROM ME—

LOOK! I KNOW HOW YOU FEEL—BUT THE DOCTORS WON'T LET US DOWN—MONEY—FORCE—NOTHING COUNTS NOW—ONLY THEIR SKILL—AND LUCK—

YEAH! I GUESS I'M A LITTLE PUNCHY! YOU'RE RIGHT—BUT DAT KID JUST CAN'T DIE—SHE SAVED MY BABY'S LIFE!

BY THE WAY, "MONSTER"—I HEAR YOU SAID YOU WANTED "LITTLE M" LEFT IN JAIL—

YEAH! TILL I GET A CHANCE TO TAKE CARE O' DAT LITTLE PUNK, PERSONALLY! HE WAS OUT TO KILL ANNE!

WELL, YOU RAISED HIM—AND YOU SURE SET HIM A CORKING EXAMPLE—WHAT DID YOU EXPECT?

LOOK! MY OLD MAN WAS A RUMMY—HE COULDN'T EVEN TELL TIME—I GROWED UP JUST A TROUGH, SMART ALECK DUNK—BUT MY KID'S OLD MAN AN'T EXACTLY A DUMMY! SEE?

SO MY KID'S GON' TO GET WISED UP TO TH' FEELS O' LIFE BY A EXPERT—HE'LL BE A CREDIT TO DIS TOWN AND TO OUR COUNTRY, WHEN I GET TROUGH—OR ELSE!

OR ELSE, WHAT?

OR ELSE HE GETS HIS BRAINS KNOCKED OUT! AND DAT AN'T JUST A FIGGER O' SPEECH, COPPER! GET IT?

WELL, TAKE IT EASY, "MONSTER"—ABOUT ALL YOU AND I CAN DO FOR ANNE RIGHT NOW IS PRAY—

YEAH! I GUESS YER RIGHT, STARR—IF I THOUGHT ANYTHING'D HELP—

PRAY, HE SAYS—ME? WHOD LISTEN TO ME? STILL, I'VE MADE SOME PRETTY BIG DEALS WIT' JUDGES—BUT NEVER WIT' ANY DAT HIGH—

BUT ANYTHING IS WORTH A TRY, FER DAT LITTLE RED-HEAD! LISTEN—DAT KID SAVED MY BABY'S LIFE! IF HE YU'LL ONLY PULL HER TROUGH I—I'LL NEVER DO NOTHING' WRONG AGAIN AS LONG AS I LIVE!

IF ONLY HE WAS LISTENIN'—AND IF HE'LL ONLY BELIEVE ME! BUT HE MUST KNOW I NEVER YET BROKE MY WORD—

HEY! I THOUGHT YOU'D GONE HOME TO GET SOME SLEEP WHAT ARE YOU WAITING HERE FOR, BY ANNE'S DOOR?

I'M WAITIN' FER AN ANSWER!

CAN YOU BEAT THAT? A BROKEN CEILING FIXTURE!

I CAN'T SEE ANYTHING THAT HAS BEEN THROWN OR KNOCKED AGAINST IT.

CHIPPER! I HAVE A QUESTION TO ASK YOU.

SURE.

DID YOU THROW SOMETHING AND BREAK THAT FIXTURE?

NO, MOMMY.

THERE IS GLASS ALL OVER. I CAN'T UNDERSTAND IT.

BLOTTO WAS WITH ME. HE DIDN'T.

SKEEZ'X, YOU DIDN'T BREAK A FIXTURE, DID YOU?

WHO—ME?

YOU FLATTER ME. I CAN'T EVEN REACH IT, NINA.

YOU HAVEN'T BEEN DUSTING?

YOU DON'T THINK I COULD CRACK IT LIKE THAT AND NOT KNOW IT.

THEY SAY A CHANGE IN TEMPERATURE SOMETIMES DOES IT.

THAT WOULD TAKE SOME BREAK IN THE WEATHER!

I THOUGHT I SAW JUDY AROUND. WHERE IS SHE?

OUT IN THE YARD SOMEWHERE.

OH-OH!
